PATRIOTS GREATS LAUNCH RETIRED FOOTBALL PLAYERS ASSOCIATION, NEW ENGLAND CHAPTER

Some of the greatest names of the New England Patriots football history are coming together on Wednesday, August 27, 2008 to launch the New England chapter of the Retired Football Players Association. Former greats such as John Hannah, Fred Smerlas, Steve DeOssie, Scott Zolak, Steve Nelson, Tim Fox, Rick Cash, Steve King, Billy Mathews, Ronnie Lippett, David O'Brien, Max Lane, and Len St. Jean will come together as the "Brockton Rox salutes New England Jox," and fans can meet and great and win prizes.

As the voice for retired football players nationwide, the RFPA helps improve the lives of players who are left with injuries or disabilities from their careers in football. The New England chapter will serve as the local voice for those who helped build the game.

WHO: John Hannah, Fred Smerlas, Steve DeOssie, Scott Zolak, Steve Nelson, Tim Fox, Rick Cash, Steve King, Billy Mathews, Ronnie Lippett, David O'Brien, Max Lane, and Len St. Jean, and more to be announced.

WHAT: Kick-off and fundraiser for the Retired Football Players Association New England chapter; autograph session; silent auction

WHEN: Wednesday, August 27, 2008; 5:30 PM

WHERE: Brockton Rox Stadium/Shaw's Center, Brockton
